The services at the Methodist tent meeting on South third street were largely attended yesterday afternoon and last night. A number of professions of religion were made and a lively interest was shown in the meeting. On account of the unabated interest the meeting will be continued through this week. Rev. Horace Bishop preached the sermon last night, and the tent was crowded to overflowing, numbers being unable to find seats under the canvass.

A meeting will be held in the Baptist church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the plans and location of a new site for the building of the Waco Female College, which it is proposed to remove from its present site. The meeting will be addressed by Rev. Dr. Mitchell, Rev. Dr. Carroll, Mayor Hinchman and others, and everybody is invited to be present.

The Gabert Brothers, fashionable tailors, under the Pacific hotel, carry the biggest and finest stock of goods in Waco. They are just receiving a large stock of new goods, domestic and imported, and have tailors just from the east so they can get up suits on short notice. Best of fits and styles guaranteed.

No fines were imposed in the mayor's court this morning, but a number of cases were continued. A complaint charging J. T. Wilson with keeping the doors of his saloon and restaurant open on yesterday was filed. A similar charge for the preceding Sunday is now pending, and the mayor will deliver his decision on it during this week.

Go to Mrs. B. J. Doss' millinery store, Fourth street, for best and cheapest hats, bonnets and other goods.

The Waco Installment Company can satisfy any one who needs furniture. They will either rent furniture or sell it on installments so low that any one can pay for it. They have a fine large stock of all sorts of furniture and they sell very cheap. Don't purchase elsewhere until you have given them a call. They move and pack furniture cheaply. Prather Block Austin street.

On Saturday evening while Mr. J. H. Baker, father of Messrs. J. B., John W. and W. S. Baker, was riding a handsome stallion near the Cotton Belt depot, the animal stepped and fell, throwing Mr. Baker violently to the ground, inflicting painful bruises and cuts upon him. Mr. Baker was picked up unconscious and medical aid at once summoned; as soon as he recovered sufficiently to be moved he was taken to the home of his daughter Mrs. Betty Tinsley, on South Eighth street. He is much improved to-day.

The New Home Sewing Machine is a daisy and is sweeping the field. The headquarters, No. 702 Austin street, has been a busy place even in these two dull months. Mr. J. B. Dixon, the genial manager, has sold ninety-eight of the New Home in the past sixty days.

Lawyers and physicians attention! I have two suits of rooms over my store, best location in the city to rent. Fine ventilation and light, newly papered and painted. First-class for lawyer, physician or dentist. Call and see them. E. W. MITCHELL, 12-11-1w 400 1/2 Austin Ave.

Waco Curiosity Shop.

Where it is, What it is, What it has done, and What it is Going to do!

Some men engage in business with very little money, having an abundance of push and get up and get and good common business sense, knowing how, when and where to buy goods, pushing rapidly to the front, are always glad to meet and welcome competition, rejoicing in the prosperity of all, with the motto, "Onward and upward," ever before them. They realize the fact that ten years ago are not the ways of to-day, that old fogysism is dead. Such men deserve success.

Others starting in business when all it was thought necessary for a man to know was what he paid for an article and to sell it at double the cost. Such men soon get disgusted at the business push and success of the modern merchant, and rather than meet competition stands off and defies it rather than sell goods at a fair profit, let them lay on the shelves and rust and grow old. Gradually dropping back, back, back, and out, leaving business for younger men, and men that are aware of the fact that this is the Nineteenth Century.

Waco Curiosity Shop.

"Lay on McDuff, and damned be he who first cries 'hold, enough!'" Waco Curiosity Shop.

Pinch a pig's tail and he will squeal. Somebody's tail must have been badly pinched. Waco Curiosity Shop for bargains.

Lord, but such advice. Are you badly hurt? Waco Curiosity Shop for dishes.

Don't go to second-hand stores. Did you ever! The Curiosity Shop for lamps.

Old or second-hand goods (shelf-worn) at the Curiosity shop.

I mean what I say. Good second-hand goods are much better than poor quality of shelf-worn goods, and far cheaper. The Curiosity Shop for chamber sets.

Would have no trouble passing most of that fresh stock as second-hand goods.

How the bird flutters; must be badly hurt.

Goods at the Curiosity Shop are sold as second hand when they begin to get shop-worn.

To defy competition is one thing, to meet it squarely and bravely is another. Tell the truth and shame the devil.

Can goods that are 8 or 10 years old be new and fresh?

The Curiosity Shop sold more stoves at retail during the last fourteen months than any two stove houses in Waco.

If there is anyone in Waco that has any new goods to sell at second-hand prices, the Curiosity Shop will buy all that is for sale.

To arrive in a few days, a large stock of kitchen, dining room and bed room furniture. All will be sold low for cash or on installment.

Waco Curiosity Shop.

The Waco Curiosity Shop is at 707 and 711 Austin street. The Waco Curiosity Shop is the place to buy and sell all kinds of second-hand goods. They carry a full and complete stock of furniture, stoves, lamps glassware, trunks, sewing machines, and nearly every article needed for housekeeping. It is the place that never tries to humbug the people with so-called Cost Sales, Moving Sales, or other devices to deceive. It is the place where they can and do sell goods at a fair profit so that there is no accumulation of old time-worn goods. It is the poor man's friend. The Curiosity Shop was started less than three years ago with less than a small fortune, and a good name. Since then it has sold nearly $120,000 worth of goods. It has helped hundreds of people to furnish their homes when they could not do so in any other way. It has continued to grow, make friends and prosper as no other house in Waco ever did with same capital.

Now let me tell you what the Curiosity Shop is going to do. It is going to have the best stock of new stoves, furniture, trunks and general household goods it ever had. It is going to meet all competition and lead it when we can. It will make special low prices in new cook and heating stoves and in the future as in the past, try to make as many friends as possible, realizing that it is by our friends we live. Thanking all for past favors and our prosperity, we are as ever,

Waco Curiosity Shop.

Navarro's Grand Rally.

The EVENING NEWS is in receipt of the following letter from Mr. Jink Evans, secretary of the Navarro county Democratic committee:

Dear Sir,—On September 29th, we will have, in honor of Col. Mills, who will return on that day, the grandest Democratic rally and barbecue ever held in Texas. The committee extends to you an invitation to be present, and we earnestly hope that you will come. We have invited every editor in the Ninth district, who is supporting Col. Mills and so far as heard from they are coming. We will have speaking by Senator Coke, Judge Gustave Cook, Hon. Seth Shepard, Hon. D. B. Culbertson and Col. Mills. We hope you will be with us on that day.

Yours truly, Jink Evans, Sec.

Yes sir, Mr. Evans, the News will be there.

The programs for the thrilling drama "Colleen Bawn" are being circulated through the city. On the first page is published the special music for the opening of the opera house, which will be rendered that night; the second page gives the cast of the play, which after reading, the News feels assured that the play will be presented with unusual dramatic talent, as 'tis composed of some of the most popular and accomplished young ladies and gentlemen in the city; the third page contains the synopsis from which anyone can see that it is a beautiful play, containing much merit and quite thrilling, being at the same time mingled with pathos and humor. Everyone should go, for it will be well worth the cost of admission fully as good as the average drama which will be presented here this season.

On Saturday last, Yom Kippur day in the Jewish calendar, Israel Lachman, son of Mrs. C. Lachman, received his confirmation at the Temple Rodef Sholem. Master Israel was on that day 13 years of age, and it is the custom according to the Hebrew faith, at this age the boys are confirmed, and are supposed afterwards to make their own way in the world, and be able to battle with the ups and downs of life. On yesterday there was a delightful party given at the family residence by Mrs. C. Lachman in honor of her son's confirmation. A large number of the young man's friends were present on the occasion, and after enjoying themselves in pleasant games, etc., the young guests were served with elegant refreshments. Master Israel was the recipient of many handsome presents, which were tokens of esteem from his numerous friends.

PARALYZED!

READ THIS AND PONDER OVER IT.

C. N. CURTIS TALKS.

I defy all competition in my line and will sell this year, fresh new goods as cheap as you can buy them anywhere in the state of Texas.

Do not go to second hand stores, or five or ten cent stores to buy second hand goods or old shop worn goods, because I will sell you brand new goods at the same price you will have to pay them.

I have an enormous stock both in quantity and variety and I am going to sell that stock at bottom prices such as will paralyze all competition. I have a large stock of fine English, French, and German staple and fancy goods just arrived and to arrive this month, and I am going to put those fine goods in at prices that will make folks open their eyes.

I mean what I say, I will sell goods as cheap as you can buy second-hand ones and I defy competition.

C. N. CURTIS.
